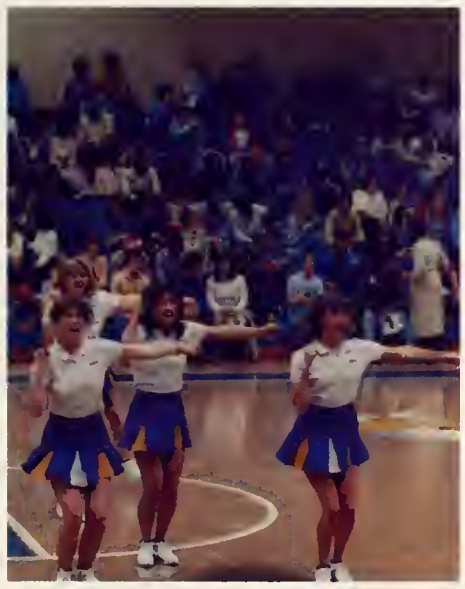
The days come and go, and we grow. We make new friends; we see old friends leave.

Our college life is full of studying, partying, making A's, making a life for ourselves. We are often so concerned about the present that we forget why we are here in the first place — to give ourselves a brighter future, and to have fun doing it.

College, for most, is a transition period. We must learn to be adults now. We have to face the real world soon. It is very frightening at times.

We survive, and we enjoy doing it. College promotes fun, and we take advantage of it. We laugh, we dance, we even act silly at times, but this is all part of our college experience.

Texas Wesleyan College has something for almost everyone. Our small, tightly-knit community fosters a strong sense of belonging. This creates an atmosphere that is conducive to intellectual and social growth. At Wesleyan we learn to be ourselves.



And still we have fun. We have fun in the SUB, in the dorms, and at parties. Some people even have fun in the library.

At Wesleyan we meet all kinds of people, and this helps us to broaden our minds. Many different cultures make up the Wesleyan community . . .

. . . and we have fun discovering and learning about different people and their diverse backgrounds.

Dr. Seuss, the master of children's literature, once wrote, "Fun is good." It is. And at Wesleyan, we have fun.

Dr. Seuss also wrote these words: "Today is gone. Today was fun. Tomorrow is another one."

The Wesleyan experience gives us all our todays and tomorrows, and it gives us a chance to make them all fun.

Bawcom, Dollar Honored

Each year the senior class dedicates the TXWECO to a deserving faculty or staff member. This year the vote was evenly divided between two people — one faculty member and one administrator. Wesleyan is unique in that the relationship between the administration, the faculty, and the students is an active one. This can best be demonstrated by the fact that the senior class dedicated the TXWECO to Dr. Jerry Bawcom, Vice President for Administration, and Dr. Alta Dollar, associate professor of Business Administration.

Dr. Jerry Bawcom came to Wesleyan in 1969. He received his B.S. in Education from Texas Tech in 1967, his M.Ed. (also from Texas Tech) in 1969, and his Ph.D. from North Texas State University in 1976. When he came to Wesleyan, he was the head resident at O.C. Hall, he taught physical education, he worked in the Registrar's office, and he was the assistant baseball coach. Since then he has held the positions of Assistant Director of Admissions, Assistant Dean of Student Life, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, Assistant to the Registrar, Dean of Student Affairs, Vice President for Student Life, and his current position of Vice President for Administration. He has sponsored the Interfraternity Council, Student Government Association, Order of Omega, Young Republicans, and the Ramrods.

Dr. Bawcom is well liked by the students and faculty alike. He always has a smile and a friendly word to offer. He is indeed a worthy recipient of the TXWECO dedication.

Dr. Alta Dollar came to Wesleyan in 1970. She received her B.S. from Texas Wesleyan in 1966, her M.B.E. from North Texas State University in 1970, and her Ph.D. (also from North Texas) in 1981. She has taught business classes since she came here. While she was a student at Wesleyan she was the Assistant Editor of the Rambler. She has published the textbook Business English: A Communications Approach (which she co-authored with Dr. Mary Joyce Burnett), and she is currently working on a business-English text-workbook. She is a member of several professional business organizations, and she received the 1976 Vernon V. Payne Memorial Award for the Outstanding Business Graduate Student. She has also been named the Texas Business Education Association Teacher of the Year (1973) and the Tarrant County Business Teacher of the Year (1970).

Dr. Dollar is a favorite of Wesleyan students, and she is always willing to help wherever she is needed. She is certainly deserving of the TXWECO dedication.

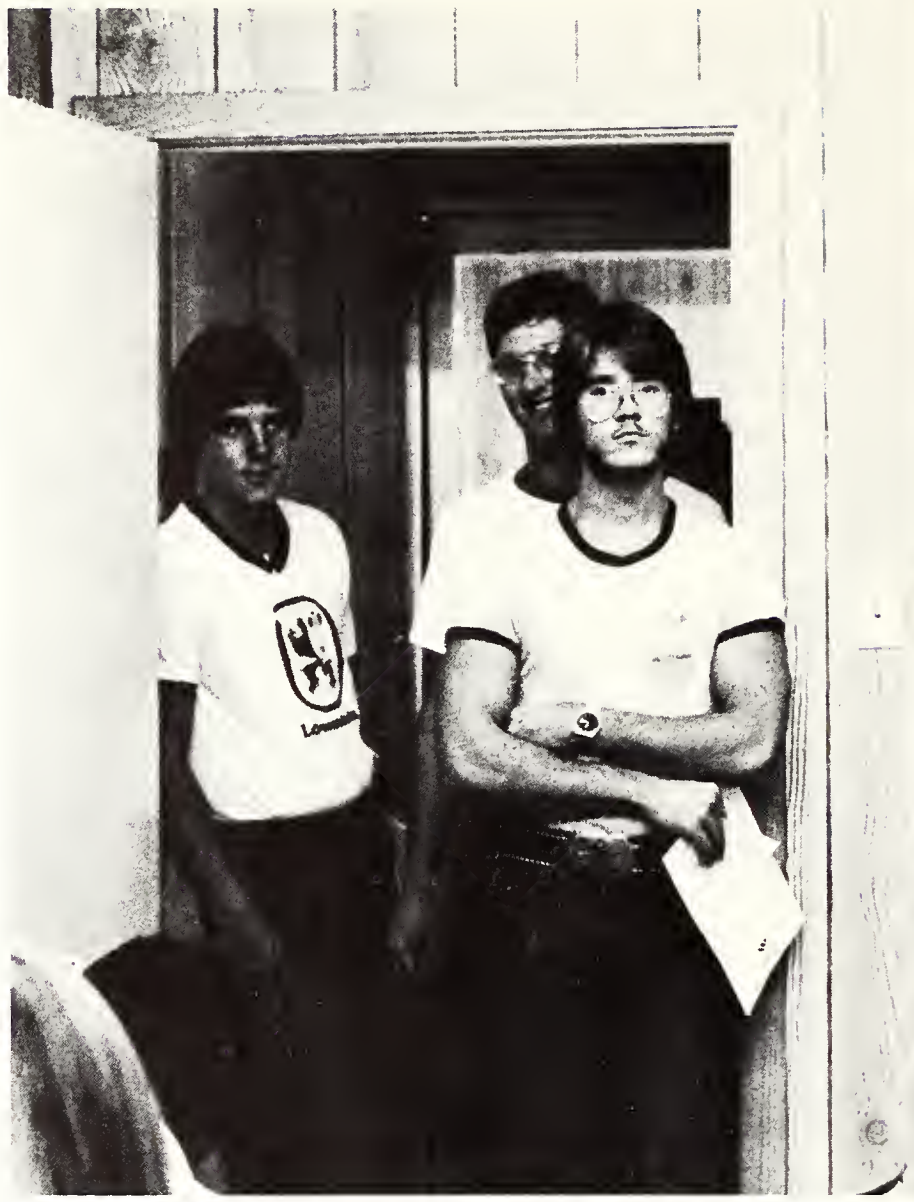
Registration Gives Some Surprises

Registration is the first thing students do in the academic year. It provides an opportunity to meet new people and to greet old friends and acquaintances. It is one of the few experiences that each student at Texas Wesleyan shares.

Registration this year was an experience that few students will soon forget. A new format for registering was implemented in the hopes that it would make the process easier, but odd circumstances slowed the pace considerably. Instead of taking the familiar route through the gym, students were instructed to go first to the SUB for TXWECO pictures and I.D. cards, and to then proceed to the Computer Center for the actual registering for classes and paying of tuition. The idea was an excellent one, but the inevitable happened — the computer broke. Although it was out of commission for only 45 minutes, the breakdown created a back-up that could be compared to the 5:00 traffic on the South Freeway. Some students stood in line for over three hours in humid, 100-degree plus weather.

In addition to the breakdown of the system, the usual registration problems occurred. Classes closed too soon for some, financial aid forms were in error, and general confusion prevailed. In spite of it all, the involved parties survived, and classes began as usual. The final count for those registered was 1,530 students.



Transfer student Frank Bonner seemed to enjoy (?) his first Wesleyan registration.

Academic Year Begins With

Howdy Week began the school year with a bang. The week-long festivities provided ample opportunities to greet old friends and make new ones. There was a pool party Monday night, followed by an all-campus bar-b-que on Tuesday. The movie Fame was shown on Wednesday night, and pizza and cold drinks were served in the SUB afterwards. Thursday brought the first Celebrity Series of the year in the form of the Gil Eagles show. The last activity of the week was a Student Government Association-sponsored dance which featured music, door prizes and plenty of food.

Howdy Week is a long-standing tradition at Wesleyan. Hypnotist Gil Eagles said it sounded like something you would see in a movie, and this is true. Howdy Week has that unique Wesleyan stamp on it that makes it something special for the entire Wesleyan community.

Debbie Guffy, Terrell Peace, and Yvonne Hensley relax and enjoy the all-campus bar-b-que.

Ben McMinn and Robyne Moody were audience volunteers at the Gil Eagles Celebrity Series show.

Julie Baugh and Debbie Cox confirm rumors that they are Peppers, too, at the pizza party.

Social Rush Provides Week

Fall Social Sorority Rush was both a time of excitement and anticipation for all the women involved. The week began Sunday, with an informal tea acquainting the prospective pledges with each social sorority: Alpha Xi Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Phi Mu. Monday evening followed with informal parties, where each of the three social sororities entertained the Rushees with skits and refreshments. The Parties began at six o'clock with Gamma Phi Beta, where they presented their own version of Chorus Line. At seven o'clock it was off to "Fanta-Xi Island" with the sisters of Alpha Xi Delta, complete with Mr. Rourke and Tattoo. Finally at eight o'clock it was back to the roaring 20's and Pinky's Place with flappers and Phi Mu. All week there was somewhere for the Rushees to go. The formal parties were held on Tuesday for Gamma Phi Beta, Wednesday for Alpha Xi Delta, and Thursday for Phi Mu. As each day passed it brought more tension and nerves for each of the three social sororities. Then finally there came Friday afternoon and relief. Out of the 46 women who had signed up for formal rush, 26 signed preference cards and received bids. Altogether between formal and open rush, 30 new women pledged the sororities.

Gamma Sig Pledges Record-Breaking Class

The women of Gamma Sigma Sigma, national service sorority, enjoyed a very successful rush in the fall semester. The informal rush party was held on Tuesday, September 15, in the Ann Waggoner lounge. Entertainment included skits written and performed by the beaus about the Gamma Sig circus and the "king," Greg Franklin. There was also a skit performed by the actives doing a Gamma Sig version of "superman," and how Gamma Sigs and Superman saved the Wesleyan campus. Formal rush was held on Thursday, September 17, at the house of Gamma Sig vice president Lesa Goetz. After a covered-dish dinner, rushees were entertained by a slide presentation and an inspiring program from the actives. The week ended with an induction ceremony in the chapel of Poly Methodist Church and dinner at Calamity's. The total number of pledges was fifteen, the largest pledge class in Gamma Sig's history on this campus. The rush served as a great beginning to a busy and fun-filled semester.

TWC Presents THE ROYAL FAMILY

Wesleyan's drama department presented George S. Kauffman's The Royal Family for their fall production. The play dealt with a theatrical family in the 1930's; a parody of the Barrymore family. The Royal Family was directed by Mason Johnson, with set design by J. Allen Brown.

Shakespeare and His Era

The Renaissance Festival, sponsored by the Shakespeare Class, is quickly becoming an anticipated annual happening. Co-Chairpersons for this event were Dr. Ruth Keating and Dean E. Cochran, who helped the class to coordinate the all-day affair.

With tons of food being sold by the Women's Faculty Club, the crowd was entertained with such events as fencing exhibitions, King and Queen for a day, magic show performed by Mr. Glen Wilcox, a comedy radio drama performed by Blair Madison, Tim Raif, Mason Johnson, Ed Stanford, and Dean E. Cochran.

Felicita Sanyet provided a mystic touch of the east by telling fortunes. Also were such organizations as Pi Kappa Alpha with their pie-throwing and the biology club exhibiting several "appetizing" pickled specimens.

The King and Queen of the Renaissance Festival are crowned during the events.

The Production of "In Search of Historical Hamlet" kicked off the day's events. Mason Johnson as Hamlet, now residing in Waco, and Tim Raif as Carl Sagan were part of the comedy radio drama.

Eagles Hypnotizes Audience

The first Celebrity Series presented Gil Eagles. He is the world's fastest hypnotist. The night of September 3 was to be a fascinating experience. Gil wanted to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that E.S.P. does exist. He demonstrated this by blindfolding himself and asking for a volunteer with a watch. He then proceeded to describe the owner and the time on the watch within ten seconds. Gil demonstrated his talent throughout the evening by describing objects that were sent up from the audience. One amazing feat he performed was to describe the serial number on a one dollar bill. The fun-filled evening continued with amazing feats of hypnotism, with the crowd leaving in awe.

The Future Comes to Wesleyan

The second fall Celebrity Series featured Sam Love. He presented unique perspectives of the future in a program entitled "Visions of Tomorrow." These visions of tomorrow included one hundred-mile-an-hour highways, robot servants, meals in pills, and vacations on Mars.

He also gave examples of future times where bicycles would be the major mode of transportation, and houses would be made of organic material.

He shared these ideas about the future in a mixed media program of slides, film, music, and live commentary.

Love is currently a director of Public Communications, an innovative public interest-media production company.

'The Shoppe' Provides Fun, Entertainment

The country music group, "The Shoppe," presented a concert at Wesleyan for the second consecutive year. "The Shoppe" is a unique musical group combining country-western, folk, bluegrass, and Dixieland with their own brand of comedy. The music group at its "hysterical best is noted for its rich vocal harmonies, cinch-tight instrumentalist, and well-executed comedy." "The Shoppe" is a well known group and has shared the stage with such artists as The Oak Ridge Boys, Larry Gatlin, and Crystal Gayle. The Student Activities Office sponsored this fun-filled evening.

SGA Heralds the Christmas Season With Dance

There is always something new and exciting happening at Texas Wesleyan College, and this has proven true with the Student Government Association. Because the students have been requesting some type of formal affair, the SGA decided to sponsor a formal Christmas dance which was held on December 9, 1981, at Ridglea Country Club. The organization hopes the dance will become a tradition.

Hosting of entertainment for the evening was The Bentley Band, a professional group. They played both country western and rock music. All the students who attended thoroughly enjoyed it.

International Week

The Annual International Week at Wesleyan was held this year, October 27-30. International Week is comprised of different activities including a student faculty forum, an international dinner, with food around the world, and a program of classical Indian dancing by an internationally acclaimed dancer. During the week a series of lectures were held covering "International Independence." Visiting Professors from UT Dallas, Rice, and the University of Dallas, spoke to the students. International Week gave Wesleyan foreign students the feeling of a home while studying in America.

Thursday, October 29, marked the first Wesleyan phone booth-stuffing contest. The contest was held to promote the Phone-a-thon that was sponsored by the Student Foundation. The attraction drew the media to the campus as Channel 8 News and the Fort Worth Star Telegram were on hand to record the rather unusual event. There were originally five teams: Baptist Student Union, Gamma Phi Beta, Gamma Sigma Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. Gamma Phi and Gamma Sig tied, and two "stuff-offs" were held to determine the winner — Gamma Phi Beta. First prize was $25. The winning team managed to fit sixteen girls in the phone booth in only 30 seconds. The phone booth stuffing was a much-watched and much-talked-about event on the campus.

Phone-a-thon Pledges Total $58,000

Wesleyan's third annual phone-a-thon was held November 2-9. Student, faculty, staff, and alumni volunteers called Wesleyan alumni to ask for donations to help defray the operating costs of the college. The phone-a-thon, which was shortened from last year's time span of two weeks to one week, raised over $58,000 in pledges. Prizes were given to the organizations which raised the most money. Lambda Chi Alpha received the prize for the most money raised, and they were followed by Gamma Phi Beta and Alpha Phi Omega. The event was sponsored by the Alumni Association along with the Student Foundation. It was held in the Boaz Student Center.

Brown-Lupton Center Opens

The Brown Lupton Campus Center was officially dedicated and opened on December 1, 1981. There was a dedication service led by Dr. Jon Fleming, Wesleyan President, and Bishop John Russell of the United Methodist Church. Students and faculty attended the dedication ceremonies, and a luncheon was served afterwards.

The Brown-Lupton Center is the first new structure built on the Wesleyan campus since 1970. It houses the offices of the Dean of Students, the Director of Placement, the Director of Housing, the Student Government Association, and Student Publications. It has a large snack bar area, a television room, a game room, and various conference rooms.

The new building was funded by the T. J. Brown and C. A. Lupton Foundation, the Amon Carter Foundation, and the J.E. and L. E. Mabee Foundation.

New Traditions Begin at Wesleyan

Homecoming 1981 started new traditions at Wesleyan. The festivities began Friday, November 20th, with a parade and float competition. Various organizations on campus decorated trucks, built floats and threw candy. The parade started at the Polytechnic Methodist Church on Collard and proceeded around the campus, ending in front of the Administration Building. The fun continued with a pep-rally and barbeque in the courtyard.

Events continued with the men's basketball team playing the McMurry Indians. During halftime the queen and her court were presented. Julie Baugh was crowned queen. The Homecoming dance held in the Brown-Lupton Center ended the festivities of the week.

Wesleyan Presents

The Pajama Game was the 1981 musical presented by the Texas Wesleyan College Drama Department. The setting for this musical is in a pajama factory in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The story concerns itself with the question of unionization of the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory. The cast included some of Wesleyan's finest. Starring in the role as the factory's new superintendent, Sid Sorokin, was Jeffrey Walter. Terri Eoff portrayed Babe Williams, the head of the Workers Grievance Committee.

David Pelton was the producer and musical director. The director and choreographer was Mason Johnson. The production designer was J. Allen Brown.

Greek Week Honors Captured by Alpha Xi Delta and Lambda Chi Alpha

Greek Week, an annual competition between the campus fraternities and sororities, was held on the week of March 29-April 2. Alpha Xi Delta and Lambda Chi Alpha won overall.

For the sororities there are three areas of competition: Greek games, an aluminum can drive, and a talent show. Alpha Xi Delta won the Greek games and can drive (by raising $223.06 in cans). Gamma Phi Beta won the talent show. The money raised in the can drive was combined by all the sororities, and the total went to help abused children.

The competition between the fraternities includes Greek games and a talent show. Lambda Chi Alpha won in both categories.

Daniels, Reavley Honored by Wesleyan

Texas Wesleyan College conferred two honorary doctorate degrees at the May graduation ceremony, May 14, 1982. Both recipients are connected with the Methodist Home in Waco, Texas.

Jack Daniels is the administrator of the Methodist Home, a position he has held since 1978. He has served in similar positions at the All Church Home (Fort Worth), the Brazoria County Youth Home (Freeport), and the High Sky Girls Ranch (Midland). Mr. Daniels is also very active in the Methodist Church, especially in the area of communications.

Dr. Jon Fleming hoods Mr. Jack Daniels.

Judge Thomas Reavley has served as Secretary of State of Texas, district judge for Travis County, a justice of the Texas Supreme Court, and a special judge for the Texas Court of Appeals. He is presently a Fifth Circuit Judge with the United States Court of Appeals. He is a trustee of the Methodist Home and Southwestern University. Judge Reavley has received honorary doctorates from Austin College and Southwestern University.

Mr. Judson Cramer and Dr. Jon Fleming confer the degree on Judge Reavley.

Renovations Change Campus Look

ricks, mortar, and construction workers are a familiar sight at Vesleyan.

The Texas Wesleyan campus experienced some changes this year. The opening of the Brown-Lupton Campus Center was a major event. When it opened, the old SUB was closed, and the old bookstore was renovated to accommodate classrooms. The third floor of the Ad Building was renovated, and the Admissions and Registrars offices moved in there. On the first floor of the Ad Building, College Relations was given a new home in some renovated classrooms.

Toward the end of the spring semester, plans for moving the college were announced. The move, which was approved by the Board of Trustees of the College, hinges on a donation of 300 acres of land in southwest Fort Worth. If the move goes as planned, the new campus will be completed in approximately six years.

In the meantime, renovation continues here in Poly. Things changed a lot this year, these changes ranging from an empty SUB to a new elevator on the back of the Ad Building. Change is inevitable, and it surely is fast-paced around Wesleyan.

Zoning change signs pop up around the campus from time to time.

Oxford Lecturer Visits Wesleyan

John Boyd Wilson, an Oxford research fellow, delivered the spring Willson Lectures April 5-6 in the Science Lecture Theater. His subject was "Moral Education in a Pluralistic Society."

In his lecture, provided by a gift from the late Dr. J. M. Willson and his wife, Dr. Mavis Terry Willson of Floydada, Texas, Wilson said of moral education, "Kids should be brought up to think for themselves. There are right answers, but they should find out for themselves."

He said that schools should be giving children the equipment for thinking, in other words, that they should be teaching more idealogy.

Wilson contrasted the American public education system to the British, saying it was not as bad as the British, which is overconcerned with society-dominated bureaucrats.

He said that he believed in independent schools, as opposed to public schools, because the teachers have more power. The power of the teacher is necessary, according to Wilson. "Kids can find out facts, and education is personal," he said. "Education has to do with getting people to think."

In addition to presenting the lectures, Wilson and his associate, Barbara Cowell, addressed several classes, a Student/Faculty Forum, and an Alpha Chi dinner.

An authority in philosophy, Wilson has written numerous books and articles on the subject. He was educated at Winchester College and New College, Oxford.

Alpha Chi Attends Convention

Mr. Kan Luther, Dianne Vandiver, and Linton Davis relax on Texas Street in Shreveport.

On Thursday, March 25, five fearless students and one very brave faculty sponsor loaded themselves and their luggage into cars and took off for the Region II Alpha Chi Convention in Shreveport, Louisiana.

The convention began on Thursday evening with a dinner. Later there were several small discussion groups, and they talked about moral education, women, and Reaganomics, just to name a few topics. Friday was filled with student presentations of papers. Linton Davis presented "Business Ethics: An Evolving Concept," Kathy Klimpel presented "A Child's Concept of Death," and Marshall Horton presented "Foreign Aid: The Effective Case for Private Assistance." Horton's paper won a national award in an international business contest.

Wesleyan President Jon Fleming attended the Friday night banquet, and he spoke on the need for excellence in American society.

The conference ended on Saturday with a general business meeting in which Mr. Kan Luther was elected president of Region II. The Wesleyan delegation returned to Fort Worth no worse for the wear late Saturday afternoon.

Those attending the convention are: Dr. Jon Fleming, Mr. Kan Luther, Dianne Vandiver, Linton Davis, Debbie Dillard, Marshall Horton, and Kathy Klimpel.

My Sister Eileen Proves Hit

The Wesleyan Spring Production, "My Sister Eileen," was presented April 22-24, 1982. The production, which was directed by J. Allen Brown, was the story of two sisters who tried to find fame and fortune in New York City in 1940.

The sisters, Ruth and Eileen, moved into an apartment in Greenwich Village, and that is when the fun began. Their landlord was an artist, and their neighbors were living together until the girls' mother came for a visit. The former tenants in their apartment were two prostitutes.

Despite the strange happenings, the sisters ended up with jobs and a happy beginning of a new life.

Wesleyan Tradition Renewed in

A Wesleyan tradition was begun again this year in the annual Sadie Hawkins Day. A long-standing staple of Wesleyan student life, the Dogpatch festival has not been celebrated since 1969. The S.G.A. reinstated the festival in hopes that it would become the longed-for event it once was.

The festival started with a bar-b-que on April 15. Entertainment was provided by the blue-grass band Salt-Lick. On Friday, April 16, the actual Sadie Hawkins festival was held on the lawn between the Ad building and the dorms. It included booths from various campus organizations, including a kissing booth, a seed-spitting game, and a water balloon throw.

The festivities ended with a dance in the Brown-Lupton Center on Friday night. Suzanne Carter and Michael Black were named Daisy Mae and 'Lil Abner.

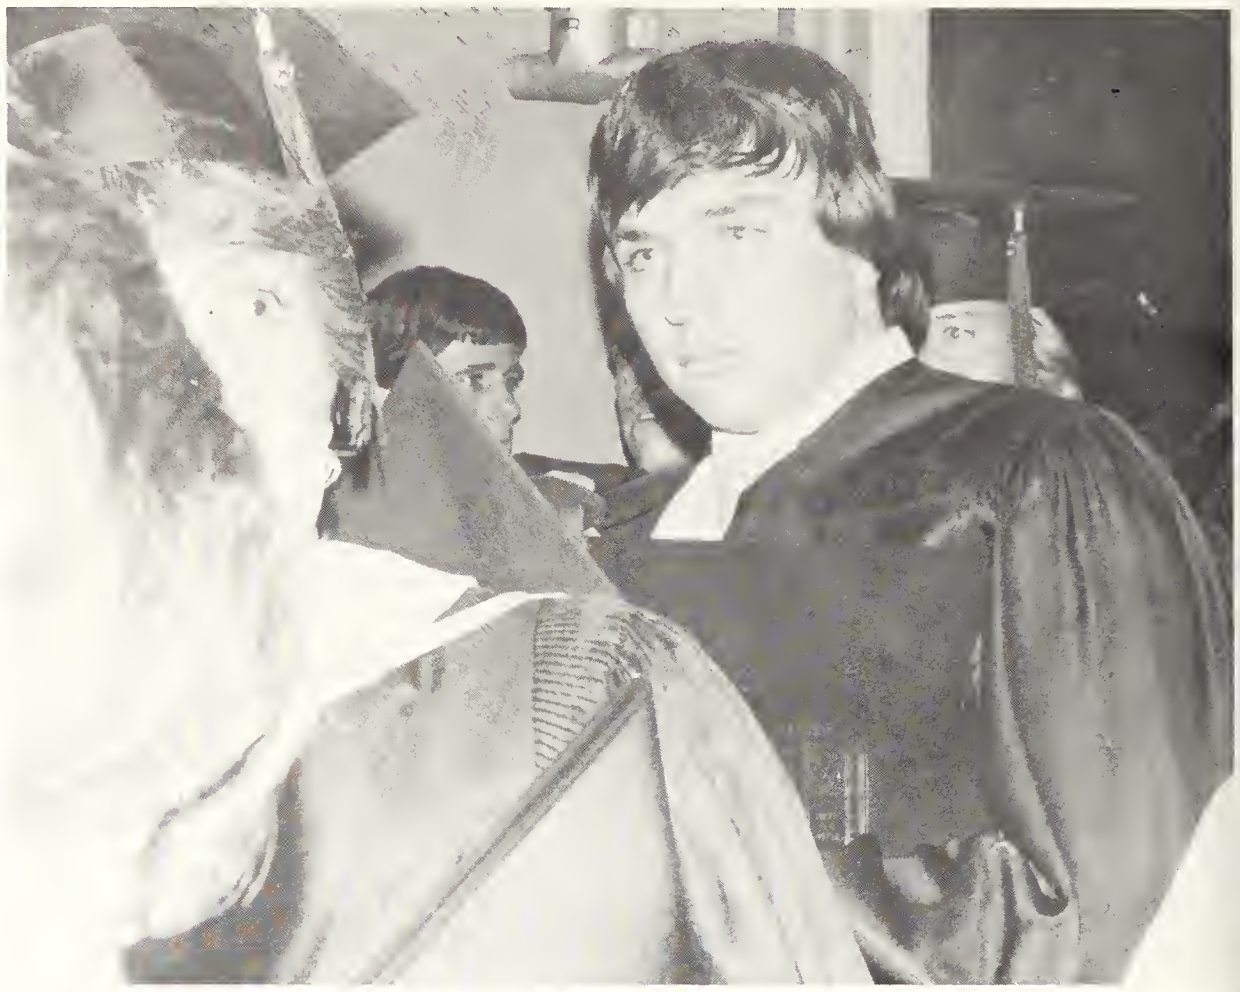
May Robing & Graduation

Robing is one of the unique aspects of the Wesleyan community. The traditional Robing ceremony began in 1928, and Wesleyan is the only college in the nation that practices Robing. When a senior is ready to graduate, he chooses his favorite faculty or staff member to place his robe on him, thus symbolizing the close relationship between all members of the Wesleyan community.

Robing was held this year in the Fine Arts Auditorium on Thursday, May 13, and a luncheon followed. Spring commencement ceremonies were held Friday, May 14, in the Sid Richardson Center.



After Graduation, Larry Fowler realizes that he must now face the real world.

Alpha Xi Delta made the school year a memorable one. Coming back to school, the sisters hung "Welcome Back" signs on the dormitory doors. They also sponsored a "Window Wipe" and washed car windshields on campus. A bake sale was held to raise money for their philanthropy, the American Lung Association. Rush was a huge success, pledging eleven girls total. A picnic for Big Sis-Little Sis and Big Brothers was fun for everyone. The new pledges held a Mother's Tea for all members and their mothers. Later in the semester, they gave a slumber party for the actives. The spring semester started off right with the pledging of four new members. The collegiates and the alumnae from Fort Worth worked together to raise money for the North Texas Lung Association. The annual Pink Rose Banquet was held at the Green Oaks Inn. Alpha Xi Delta won Greek Week by coming in first place in games and the car drive and second in the talent show. Best Pledge was Carmen Quaintance and Best Active was Luanne Dowler.

The Gamma Phi Beta's were active in many things this year. They started off the year with a successful rush. They had a pledge slumber party and kidnapping of the pledges. Fun was had by all at the Halloween costume party.

The formal banquet, The Pink Carnation, was held at the Ramada Inn Central. Philanthropy projects were held at the Cook Children's Hospital and at Jo Kelly School. The women of Gamma Phi Beta won the Phone Booth-Stuffing Contest and won second in the Wesleyan Alumni Phone-a-Thon. During Greek Week, they won first place in the Greek Talent Show. These women are active in campus activities. Some are cheerleaders, Ram Band members, Student Foundation members and others participate in the musicals.

Phi Mu is the second oldest national sorority in the United States. This year, the women have had a fun-filled and exciting time. Every year, Phi Mu carves pumpkins for the fraternities and fills them with candy. They enjoyed parties at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Their annual Carnation Ball was held at the Americana Hotel. They participated in many school-sponsored activities. The members helped during the Wesleyan Alumni Phone-a-thon. The school enjoyed the dunking booth sponsored by Phi Mu at the Sadie Hawkins Carnival. They also held their annual Easter egg hunt for the Wesleyan faculty's children. Best Pledge was Cindy Teems, and Best Active was Tracey Wood, and Best Big Brother was Michael Black. The Big Brothers were honored with a picnic at the end of the year.

Lambda Chi Becomes Largest on Campus

Lambda Chi Alpha had a busy and successful year. Lambda Chi became the largest fraternity chapter on campus, having a total membership of 30. The men of Lambda Chi sponsored a wine and cheese party for Wesleyan's faculty and staff. They also participated in Oktoberfest held at Tarrant County Convention Center. They held a Hawaiian Luau complete with roasted pig. Lambda Chi swept Greek week winning every game event except one, the talent show, and left the stage with the first place overall trophy. The brothers of the fraternity also won the intramural team award. They participated in the Sadie Hawkins events, painted a house for an elderly woman, and sponsored many campus parties. Lambda Chi ended their year with the annual White Rose Formal held at the Hyatt Regency. Fall officers were: David Scott, president; Ben McMinn, vice president; Darrell Bell, secretary; and Brick Moore, treasurer. Spring officers were: David Scott, president; Larry Fowler, vice president; Scott Bryan, secretary, and Craig Peden, treasurer.

DDs Reorganize

Illotus Duodecim, known on campus as the DD's, was organized in 1943. It is a local fraternity formed with the purpose of promoting friendship and brotherhood with a spirit of cooperation on campus. Their motto, "I am my brother's keeper" emphasizes this. Its fraternity members strive to form bonds of friendship and loyalty among themselves, demonstrating the ideals of fraternal and social being to the campus.

The DDs were reorganized this year and the officers were: Tom Buie, President; Mike Sims, Vice President; Jeff Bullock, Keeper of the Sands; Chai Laird, Keeper of the Quill; John Kaemmerling, Keeper of the Flame; Brent Brewer, Mudslinger; DD sponsors are Mason Johnson and Ibrahim Salih. The DDs placed 2nd in Greek Week and were active on intramural teams.

Tom Buie, Chai Laird and Wayne Stringfellow show the brotherhood of the DDs.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

The brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon had a year full of changes and achievements. The year began with outside renovation. Actives and little sisters worked together to paint the exterior of the house and garage, which included adding the name for all to see. Throughout the school year, Sigma Phi Epsilon has kept busy with redecoration of both the house and the garage, otherwise known as the party room. Earlier this year, all of the brothers attended the Regional Leadership Academy that was held in Arlington, Texas. The year was made even better by the fact that their membership made a dramatic increase. They were pleased to announce a new chapter counselor, Professor Stan Westlake. The fall president was James Wetherby and the spring president was John Corpany.

Gamma Sigma Sigma, the only national service sorority on campus, kept very busy this year helping on campus and in the community. They had the largest pledge class in their history last fall with fifteen new pledges. During the year they won second place in the phone booth-stuffing contest, they helped in the phone-a-thon, won the spirit stick at the Homecoming basketball game, sponsored a very successful blood drive for the Carter Blood Center, had a Halloween party for the children at the All-Church Home, made care packages for the Red Cross, held a bowl-a-thon for spinabifada, and raised money for the Lena Pope Home through a walk-a-thon. They served at several banquets and they ushered at the musical and other drama productions. They held a formal party at the Diamond Oaks Country Club in the fall, and one at the Americana Hotel in the spring. Nancy Sapaugh and Gerda Cole were Best Pledge in the fall and spring, respectively, and Aimee Didion was Best Active both semesters.

The members of Alpha Phi Omega had a very busy year. They started off the fall semester with a rush picnic at Oakland Park. In conjunction with Gamma Sigma Sigma, they held a benefit dance at Calamity's to raise money for the Women's Center of Fort Worth. They painted a house, and they cleaned up the gym after all the home basketball games. They held a formal Christmas party and a toga party.

The biggest event of the year for APO was the hosting of the Section 41 conference. APO's from all over Texas attended the conference, which included seminars and business meetings as well as parties.

Alpha Phi Omega is the largest service fraternity in the world. The Xi Nu chapter at Texas Wesleyan is sponsored by Dr. Ibrahim Salih, Mr. Tim Tandy, and Charlie Roth.

Chemists Sponsor Seminars

The American Chemical Society is the club for students of Wesleyan interested in chemistry. The club sponsored seminars on such topics as forensic medicine and toxic wastes. They also sponsored a high school participation at TWC. In this program, high school students came and received help from Wesleyan chemists in extracting caffeine from tea. They went on a field trip to the Fort Worth Crime Lab. The American Chemical Society participated in a softball game against the Beta Beta Beta club and also held their first annual Awards Banquet. Officers were Will Miller — president; Kathleen Baker — vice-president; Debbie Johnson — secretary; Tatman Potts — treasurer. The sponsors of the club were Mr. Stan Westlake and Dr. Robert Landolt.

Members: Tatman Potts, Mr. Stan Westlake, Will Miller, Jeb Johnson, Debbie Johnson, Dr. Robert Landolt, Kathleen Baker.

Beta Beta Beta Bonds Biologists

Beta Beta Beta is an organization for students interested in the life sciences. The purposes of the organization are to stimulate scholarship, to spread scientific knowledge, and to promote biological research. The local chapter, Sigma Theta, is limited to biology majors who have completed three biology courses with a grade-point average of 3.0 or better. Throughout the year they held a bake sale, a munchies sale during the time that the snack bar was closed due to moving, and a field trip to Junction, Texas. They also had a fund-raiser for Mickey, a victim of progeria, so that he could go to Disneyland. Beta Beta Beta sponsored a blood pressure booth at the Renaissance Festival and a lemonade booth at Sadie Hawkins Day. Dr. Mary Ann Clark and Mr. Tim Tandy were sponsors of the group, and the officers were: Ann Lawson, president; Chris Warmann, vice president; Jan Carnes, secretary/treasurer; Sandy Wood, social chairman; and Meg Harris, historian.

B.S.U. Attends Retreat, Seminars

The Baptist Student Union is designed to minister to the needs of people on campus. They also promote fellowship, ministery, and worship. This year, they had weekly programs which included visits to nursing homes, bible sessions and luncheons. Activities also included a volleyball-a-thon, a mission trip to Terre Haute, Indiana, attended seminars in Glorieta, New Mexico, and they also attended the International Student Fellowship Retreat. The year ended with a fellowship cookout, a Favorite Professor Banquet, and a spring banquet. The members in fellowship with other B.S.U. chapters bonded them in Christian brotherhood. Officers are: Clay Howerton — president, Donna Yeatts — encounter director, Robert Hill — personal minister mission director, Linda Peterson — outreach director, Greg Franklin — summer mission director. The freshman council are: Rick Hadley, Connie Wallace, JoAnn Newburn, and Ronda Allen.

B.E.S.T. is the Bilingual Education Student and Trainer Organization. This program is designed to promote bilingual education. This year has been a full one, with getting organized. They started the year with a Tostada Sale. B.E.S.T. sponsored a Mariachi Program for the students at J. P. Elder Middle School. This was done to help raise funds for Dr. Flores' campaign for president of FWABE. The members helped the bilingual students at DeZavala School in a carnival to celebrate Cinco de Mayo. Some of the members from Wesleyan attended a convention in El Paso. Officers for the year were Yolanda Sanchez — president; Mika Cumming — vice-president; Lucy Hidalgo — secretary; Maria Jose Page — treasurer.

Methodist Student Movement

The Methodist Student Movement is an organization for Methodists and other interested students on campus. Their meetings are every Thursday at free period and offer a variety of programs, speakers, films, food and fellowship. On Sunday nights, they meet in conjunction with Polytechnic United Methodist Church. The Methodist Student Movement offers communion services on the first Wednesday of each month. It was a fun-filled year with retreats to Rainbow Camp and Glen Lake Camp. John Wesley, also known as Bill Vance, visited the meeting.

Officers for the fall semester were: president — Sandy Mersereau, vice-president — Janie Chester, secretary — Leah Marney. Spring semester officers were: president — Janie Chester, vice-president — Mary Walling, secretary — Rita Sims, treasurer — Shelley Crenshaw, publicity — Mike Hamilton and Raul Gutierrez.

Omega Chi Promotes Unity, Inspiration and Fellowship

Omega Chi is a fraternity for religion majors and minors, and for others who are interested in the advancement of religious studies. The organization helps members to prepare for church-related careers. They meet once monthly for a luncheon and inspirational program. The main event for Omega Chi each year is their Christmas party for underprivileged children. Children from around Fort Worth are sponsored by various campus organizations, and they receive toys and clothing at a Christmas party that is held on campus. Even Santa Claus attends. Officers for this year were Sarah Leach, president; Suzanne Hardin, vice president; and Dr. Jesse Sowell, sponsor.

Boneheads Forget

Beta Eta Epsilon is a society of Boneheads. Requirements for membership include an ability to be totally out to lunch and to have a terrible memory. The BHE group picture was scheduled twice, and most of the members forgot to show up both times. The first time only two members made it, and only four came the second time. The rest of the members, by not showing up, demonstrated that they were true Boneheads.

The Boneheads did almost nothing this year. They did invite 7½ new members to join in the fall semester, but these new members were never initiated. One of the problems the Boneheads faced was the fact that all the members last year lived in Elizabeth Hall (except Greg Frankiln, and he did everything but sleep there). This year the members were spread out everywhere, and being Boneheads, they were not able to get together too often.

PBL Unites Future Business Leaders

Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity is one of the largest active organizations on the Wesleyan campus with 67 members. At this year's State Leadership Conference, held in Marshall, the fraternity won numerous awards. In first place were: Marshall Horton for Economics, Barbara Wangler for Executive Typist, Debbie Dillard for Ms. Future Business Executive, and Larry Fowler, Brick Moore, Jean Spradley, Chris Easley, and Linton Davis for Parliamentary Procedure Team. They also were first place winners of the Local Chapter Activities Reports and the Gold Seal Award. Second place winners were: Debbie Hill for Data Processing I, Pam Hix for Extemporaneous Speaking, Lisa Rodriguez for Office Procedures, and the fraternity for the Largest Local Chapter Membership. Third place awards went to: Aimee Didion for Business Administration, Linton Davis for Mr. Future Business Executive, and Tim Martinez for Business Law. Larry Fowler, Linton Davis, and Debbie Dillard won the Texas Spur Award (Who's Who in Texas Phi Beta Lambda). The fraternity also won the Vernon Payne Award for the most outstanding chapter present at the conference. Tim Martinez was elected state vice president and Brick Moore was elected state parliamentarian. Officers for this year were: Linton Davis — president, Brick Moore — vice-president, Debbie Dillard — secretary, Tim Martinez — treasurer, Lisa Rodriguez — reporter, Larry Fowler — parliamentarian.

Phi Beta Lambda officers are: Brick Moore, vice president; Tim Martinez, treasurer; Linton Davis, president; Debbie Dillard, secretary; and Lisa Rodriguez, reporter.

International Club Unites Students From Around the Globe

The International Club is an organization that is designed to improve relations between foreign and U.S. students. The members seek to bridge the cultural gaps that exist between students from different places. People from all around the world (including the U.S.) are members of the club.

This year the International Club co-sponsored International Week along with Alpha Chi. During that week there was a fashion show and an international dinner. Club members prepared dishes from their home countries for the dinner, so there was a wide variety of foods.

The club held receptions for new students each semester. In the fall the reception was held in the Board Room, and Wesleyan President Dr. Jon Fleming was the speaker. The club also held parties at the River Oaks Country Club and at Sleepy Hollow in Arlington.

Officers were: Iyad Duwaji, president; Sally Ee, vice president; Marjorie Rose, secretary; and Becky Brooks, treasurer. Sponsors for the group were Mr. Kan Luther, Dr. Walter Toxey, Dr. Miriam Espinosa, and Dr. Roger Speegle.

Intensive English Program

The Intensive English program at Wesleyan is for students who want to improve their English. This year there were 35 students involved with the program. The countries that were represented were: Brazil, Dominican Republic, Iran, Japan, Jordan, Lebanon, Mexico, Peru, Saudi Arabia, Spain, and Syria. The director of the program is Dr. Roger Speegle.

Texans Become "Iraquis" for MMUN

MMUN (Midwest Model United Nations) is just what the name implies: a model United Nations. It is held annually in Saint Louis, Missouri. Students from all over the United States participate in the conference, which is conducted much like the real United Nations in New York.

The Wesleyan delegation this year represented the middle-Eastern nation of Iraq. They presented proposals, and they worked in committees similar to those of the actual United Nations. To adequately represent their country, students had to study the economy, religion, and customs of Iraq.

The Wesleyan delegation was voted one of the five outstanding delegations in the entire conference. Melinda Burke served as Head Delegate, and Jean Spradley served as Assistant Head Delegate. The group was sponsored by Dr. Ibrahim Salih.

MMUN members include (seated) Jean Spradley, Larry Fowler, Melinda Burke, and (standing) Michael Allen, Dr. Ibrahim Salih, and Chris Easley.

Press Club Parties

O. O. McIntyre Press Club members sing a song with Juan at Joe T's Garcia's Mexican restaurant.

The O. O. McIntyre Press Club is an organization that is open to all those who work on the student publications (The Rambler and the TX-WECO). They have a party once a semester. This year's officers were: president, Kathy Klimpel; vice president, Linda McMillan; secretary, DeeAnn Williams; parliamentarian, Dean Cochran; social chairperson, Kathy Caison; pledge advisor, Andra Creed; advisor's advisor, Joe College; ambassador at large, Tim Raif; special ambassador to Louisiana, Lori Nichols. Mrs. Joann Langston and Dr. Mike Sewell served as sponsors of the club.

Staffers Take Pride in Gathering,

The Rambler, campus newspaper, is published during the school year, except examination periods. The staff moved from its old office in Ann Waggoner Hall to the Student Publications suite on the second floor of the new Brown-Lupton Student Center in December. Rambler Staff members strove to keep the campus informed and to encourage student and faculty contributions. The Rambler members participated in the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association convention in San Angelo in the spring. Linda McMillan was 1981-1982 editor, and her eight staff members were Kathy Caison, managing editor and photographer; Dean Cochran, cartoonist and columnist; Norman Hoover and Jason Domm, photographers; Kathy Klimpel, DeAnn Williams, Jennifer Shields and Wendy Littman, reporters. DeAnn Williams, business manager, and Michael Sewell, sponsor.

Rambler staffer Dean Cochran swears he will never turn in late copy again as he gets his "punishment" from the editor.

TXWECO Staff Visits Old West

The TXWECO staff had a turbulent year. With an entire staff of newcomers, much of the year was spent in a learning process. The office in the Brown-Lupton center opened in December, but the darkroom in that building was not finished all year. The staff adjusted to the new surroundings rather easily, and they worked hard to get a quality yearbook put together. To meet deadlines many nights were spent doing pictures and layouts until the wee hours of the morning.

All in all the year was successful. The book was finished on time, and we feel that it is a good book. If you do not like it, you can work on it next year and let us get some sleep.

Wesleyan Singers

The Wesleyan Singers are under the direction of Mr. Stephen Simons. The Wesleyan Singers have been very active on and off campus this year. They sang at the dedication of the Brown-Lupton Student Center. In the spring, they performed at the Government Symposium that was held at the Wesleyan campus. The group performed with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra in Prelude to Christmas. The singers went on tour during the spring. Traveling around Texas they performed for churches and high schools. This year, the Wesleyan singers were selected for "The Protestant Hour," a national religious program.

Mr. Stephen Simons sponsors the Wesleyan singers.

The United Voices of Inspiration carried on their gospel tradition in their second year at Wesleyan. The choir sang on campus as well as the Texas Collegiate Gospel Festival held at UT Arlington. U.V.O.I. also sang at the Rising Star Missionary, Emmanuel Baptist Church, Bethel Tabernacle, Greater Saint Mark, New Providence; and went to National Baptist Student Union Retreat in Birmingham, Alabama. They sponsored Black History Week and a movie The Learning Tree. Their year ended with a song and an Awards Banquet at Colonial Cafeteria.

TW Players Further Dramatic Integrity

TW Players act in the Pajama Game.

The TW Players are a group consisting of people who are interested in the promotion of drama on the Wesleyan campus. The TW Players sponsor the campus productions. The members work together to produce quality shows, as well as to help each other develop their individual talents.

WIT a Different Style in Theatrics

Wesleyan Interpretive Theatre is an advanced oral interpretive class. Its purpose is to interpret things in a different way. Book reviews, prayers, Bible readings and poetry are read and performed. Lines are not memorized — they are read — and performances are held for small groups of people.

Young Democrats Promote Democracy

This year the Young Democrats registered over 100 voters on the campus. They also traveled to area shopping malls to register voters for the May Primaries. Many of the members worked actively on local political campaigns. This year speakers included Fort Worth attorney and civil rights advocate Art Brender and his wife Linda. They also heard from a candidate for state senate and State Representative Ruby Carey.

Officers were: Ted Lewis — president; James Jones — vice-president; Chai Laird — secretary/treasurer.

Tau Iota Mu Remains Local Club

Seated in front of the TIM house is the terminal pledge, Dean Cochran. Standing are Tim Raif, and Little Sisters Carolyn Renner and Kathy Klimpel.

The Eta Pi chapter of Tau Iota Mu was a busy one this year. Acting as the only anti-social fraternity on campus, the members of TIM spent most of the year working on getting a charter. When it was discovered that the only person qualified to give the chapter such a charter was TIM founder Tim Raif, Tim petitioned himself and was immediately turned down.

A meeting was held, and the Eta Pi chapter decided to revert back to its original monicker and drop the Greek letters and just be called the Brotherhood of TIM (or the BOT's).

The brothers of TIM had planned a massive takeover of one of the dorms, but it never came about because it was decided that no one would take the attack seriously.

Other activities over the past year included a can drive for the Save the World — Let's Nuke Jerry Falwell Fund, a trip to Eckerd's, and fixing a flat after dark on the Northside.

TIM member Tim Raif, Little Sisters Carolyn Renner and Kathy Klimpel, and terminal pledge Dean Cochran talk to their house bartender Herb Hays.

The green eye ring is the symbol of supreme authority in TIM.

Students Promote School Spirit

The Ramrods promote school spirit toward athletics at Wesleyan. Membership is open to any student interested in promoting school spirit who can volunteer time toward the effort.

In addition to promoting spirit, the Ramrods coordinate activities with the cheerleaders and exhibit "Willie the Ram" at athletic events.

The Ramrods reflect the traditions of old, the progress of today, and the plans for the future to the students and the community.

Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

The Ram Cheerleaders had a very successful and busy year. At the National Cheerleading Association Summer Camp, held at SMU, they won four blue ribbons, one red ribbon, and the spirit stick for their outstanding performances. They cheered both men and women basketball teams and encouraged crowd participation. Debbie Guffy was the sponsor for the Ram Cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders are Nancy Ellis, Linda Beltram, Cindy Cortez, bottom; Tammy Greenfield, Sandy Freeman, and Tami Morris, top.

Basketball Team Advances to Play-Offs

The Wesleyan basketball team finished regular season play with a record of 10-21. They qualified for a berth in the NAIA District 8 play-offs, but they lost in the first round.

The Rams did surprisingly well considering their rather unusual season. With the death of Coach Johnny Howerton at the beginning of the season, the team pulled through, and they made it to post-season play.

Individual scoring leaders for the season were Charles Fields (642 points, 21.4 average), Kenneth Chambers (489 points, 15.8 average), Larry Coleman (228 points, 14.3 average), Rodney Bowen (339 points, 11.7 average). Fronnie Clark hit 58 of 103 shots (58.3%), and Larry Coleman made 46 of 53 free throws (86.8%).

Coach Curt Pickering, who took charge of the team in mid-season, led the Rams to a successful year.

Lady Rams Fare Well in Tournaments

The Lady Rams ended the basketball season with a 13-21 record. The rams scored 2,355 points during the season. The women's basketball team also participated in many tournaments during the season. They placed second in the T.C.U., Midwestern, and Tarleton State tournaments. Gwen Thorne and Andrea Sawyer placed on the all-tournament team. Gwen Throne was selected to the State District VI team. These members are selected on their grades as well as playing ability. Andrea Sawyer was selected to the TAIAW Division All-Tournament. Andrea was the season's most consistent shooter from the field.

Baseball Stars Shine Through Season

The Ram baseball team experienced a successful year again this year. They travelled to Phoenix, Arizona, at the end of season play for the zone playoffs.

The team, which was coached by Frank Fultz, had several outstanding players this year. Dave Griffin broke two Wesleyan season records with 24 homeruns and 80 R.B.I.s. The first baseman drove in the winning run in ten of 31 Ram victories.

Rusty Pontious, Brian Bargerhuff, and Dave Griffin were all named District 8 Player of the Week during the season (and Griffin was named twice). In the District 8 top 20 there are two Wesleyan batters — Griffin, with .451, rated second, and Robert Peters, with .351, rated twelfth. Three Wesleyan pitchers were listed in the ERA charts — David Fitzhugh (1.69) ranked second, Brian Bargerhuff (2.64) ranked ninth, and Mac Rogers (3.53) ranked sixteenth.

Softball Team Places

The Wesleyan women's softball team experienced a successful year in that they won first place in the state tournament in the fall. This win secured them a berth in the regional tournament. The team travelled to Columbia, Missouri, for a tournament during the year. They also played into overtime twice with the team that was ranked fifth nationally in Division I, and that was quite an accomplishment.

The team was led by coach Donna Sullivan, and Donna Manning was the leading pitcher, with an earned run average of 2.89. Vera DeLeon won the 3D award, Kathy Kay was named offensive player of the year, and Vicki Villarreal was named defensive player of the year.

Volleyball Team Has Successful Season

The Wesleyan Volleyball team had a successful season this year, ending with a 37-23 record. The women played in six tournaments across the state, placing first at the Stephen F. Austin tournament. Captain for the team was Jackie Taylor and co-captain was Rhonda Lane. Dianne Urey was nominated athlete of the year and won second in the state.

Jackie Taylor and Patti Walton won the Wesleyan Awards for being outstanding in all areas of sportsmanship and competitive spirit. Rhonda Lane won the 3D Award for Desire, Determination, and Dedication. The Wesleyan volleyball team was coached by Becky Hughes.

Ram Netters Have Good Year

The men's and women's tennis teams had a good year. The men ended with a 14-12 record. They placed second in the district tournament. Terry Hawthorne, a freshman, advanced to the finals in district eight, and ended his season with a 27-24 record. Ladd Rowan had the best percentage record in singles.

The women ended with a 10-12 season record. They placed third in the TAIAW state tournament, which qualified them for regionals in Arkansas. Gina Hicks and Maluli Laguna advanced to the finals in flight 2 doubles. The women won the Midwestern tournament without losing a match.

The recipients of the Golden Racket were Kris Foote and Terry Hawthorne. Mary Walling and Rob Johnson won the 3D award. Captain for the men's team was Mike Claiborne, and the women's captain was Kris Foote. The teams were coached by Dr. Ed Olson and Glenn Williams.

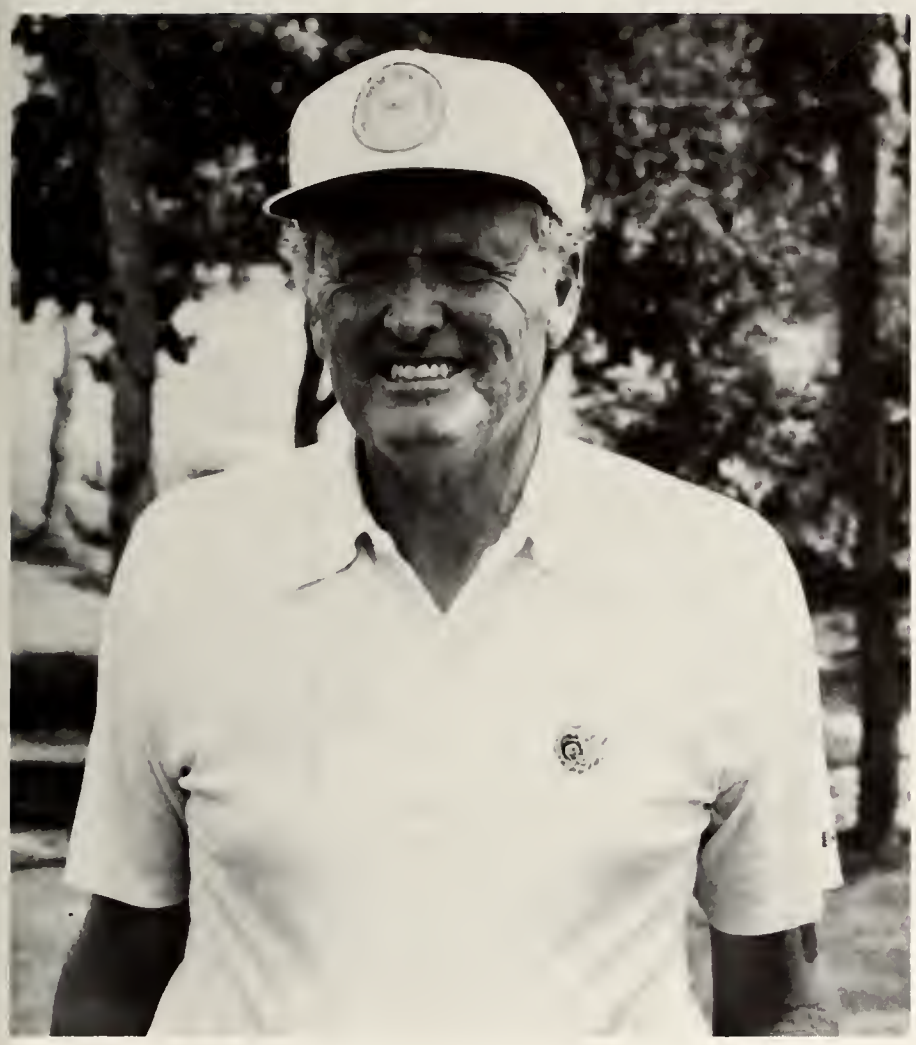
Ram Golfers Capture Honors



Mr. O. D. Bounds coaches the golf team.

The Wesleyan golf team had another successful season during the 1981-82 year. The team qualified for the 28th time to play in the NAIA nationals by winning the District 8 title for the 11th consecutive time. Captain Gary Dennis, All-American, won the district title for the second time, making All-District for each of his four years here at Wesleyan.

Wesleyan competed in 14 golf tournaments this season, winning four and placing second four times, third twice, fourth twice, and fifth once. The Rams won at Trinity, Abilene, Oklahoma Intercollegiate, and District 8, and finished second at North Texas State, third at Albuquerque, and Wichita State Shocker Classic Tournaments.

Ram golfers have taken medalist honors several times this season. Henry Cagigal was the Fort Worth Parks and Recreation champion, Dow Brian carded the lowest score in the Trinity Invitational, and Danny Mijovic was low at Stephen F. Austin, while Gary Dennis won the District title.

Danny Mijovic, junior, two-time All-American, medalist in the 1980 and 1981 NAIA national tournament, represented the NAIA in the Sun Bowl tournament and finished 10th out of a field of 24 NCAA All-Americans.

The Ram linksters have finished second in the nationals for the past two years, and they hope to capture the national title this year.

Dean Pohl Stands Above the Crowd

The Heads Above the Crowd Award is given annually to a member of the Wesleyan community who does more than his/her share to help the college. The Student Government Association names the recipient, and Ms. Loralee Pohl, Dean of Students, is the honoree this year.

Loralee, a native of Whiting, Indiana, came to Wesleyan in 1971 after receiving her master's degree in Student Personnel Administration from Indiana University. She is responsible for bringing national social sororities to the campus, and she served as the Panhellenic advisor for ten years.

Dean Pohl's major responsibilities at Wesleyan now include being the director of the Brown-Lupton Campus Center, the supervisor of the Student Life Program (which includes housing, placement, health services, Student Activities, and the Academic Skills Center), chairing the selection committee for Who's Who and the Haltom Awards, and advising on campus policy to all student organizations. She is also in charge of Freshman Orientation, campus parking, and student discipline, as well as being co-advisor of the Student Government Association and a counselor to many students.

Dean Pohl seems to be popular among students as she is an honorary member of several campus organizations. These organizations include: Alpha Lambda Delta, Alpha Phi Omega, Alpha Psi Omega, Gamma Sigma Sigma, Order of Omega, and the T.W. Players.

Ms. Pohl is just as involved in the community as she is on campus. She has served as President of the Board of the Women's Center of Tarrant County, a member of the Advisory Board for the Area Agency on Aging, a member of the Board of Directors of the Neighborhood Housing Service, and a member of the class of 1981-82 Leadership Fort Worth.

Dean Pohl is truly a "Head Above the Crowd." She is well liked by the students, and she deserves her award.

Snack Bar Nourishes All

The snack bar of the Brown-Lupton Student Center located in the Quadrangle Room has done much to improve the life of the members of the Wesleyan community this year. With the new expanded menu, longer hours and friendly service, the snack bar is enjoyed by all.

Crews Keep Kids Contented

The Wesleyan maintenance crews keeps the college in working order.

Construction of West Library to Begin in Summer of '82

Amid the changes on campus this past year, one very vital and important building was being planned. Construction on the Eunice and James L. West Library began during the summer of 1982 and is scheduled for completion in 1983. The new building will be a three-story circular structure and will house the media and computer centers. Rooms for seminars and classrooms will also be included. The estimated cost of the new library will be $10.7 million.

Mrs. Nell Ornee
Head Librarian

Mrs. Carol Corley, Mrs. Patt Hays, Mrs. Grace Kendrick, and Mrs. Cathy Nichol are part of the helpful library staff.

Members of the library staff include: Louise Woodruff, Nell Ornee, Gale Harris, Willa Cage, Tom Walker, Frances Milligan, and Frances Bailey.

"Is this job really worth it?" questions Richard Bell.

The year has been long, and times have been hard, but it is over now.

The TXWECO is in your hands now, but there were times when this eventuality was questionable. The staff was made up of all new workers. We used a different publisher this year. We moved our office (but not our darkroom) to the Brown-Lupton Center in December. With no sink for the new darkroom, we were forced to go back and forth to the old darkroom for the remainder of the school year. Despite all this, we made it — the yearbook got finished.

Thanks go to Brigitte Lueck and Kathy Caison for helping out with pictures. Brigitte saved us many times.

The Rambler staff (while it was in existence) and Mrs. Joann Langston were always available to help us meet the never-ending deadlines. Mrs. Langston kept us going when we were ready to give up, and we are eternally grateful to her.

The staff worked hard, and their diligence paid off.

I'm going to get mushy here and thank all the people who were always there to help me when I was ready to trash the TXWECO: Andra Creed, Dean Cochran, Debbie Dietzel, Jake and Jane Schrum, and Momma. These are the people you should thank for your yearbook.

I have enjoyed being your TXWECO editor for the past two years. I hope your memories have been preserved here, and I hope you can show your 1982 TXWECO to your grandchildren with pride.

A rose blooms, grows, and dies within one year.
It gives us its beauty for only a short time.
All too often people give us their beauty for a short time.
We grieve that they are no longer with us.
But we are happy that we were able to share their beauty in our lifetime.

Their beauty was a joy to us all:
Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr.
Mrs. Audrey Dillow
Nelson Emery
Mrs. Granville T. Hall
Johnny Howerton.
